Re: United States v. Bienvenido Castillo, 90 Cr. 469 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

The Government writes, on consent, to respectfully request an extension of time to respond to defendant Bienvenido Castillo's April 3, 2025, motion for sentencing relief (Dkt. 45).

The Government is endeavoring to obtain records—including, among other things, records relating to the defendant's time in custody. Because the defendant is in state custody, the Government must obtain such records through New York's Freedom of Information Law. Given the need to obtain records and the age of the case, the Government respectfully requests an extension of time until July 11, 2025, to file its response.

The requested schedule will not prejudice the defendant; as defense counsel has observed, regardless of the outcome of the defendant's motion, he "will spend—at minimum—the next seven $\frac{1}{2}$ years completing th[e] state sentence." (Dkt. 45, at 4). Defense counsel consents to the requested adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,

JAY CLAYTON
United States Attorney
